

WANTED! MEN TO FILL GOOD POSITIONS

Trained men are wanted everywhere; in fact, they are always wanted, for the demand is greater than the supply. This demand is not for the man who is able to earn only two or three dollars a day at hard manual labor and who can work only under the direction of some one else, but for the man who is able to plan and direct the work of others—the man whose training has qualified him to competently hold positions of responsibility.

The INTERNATIONAL CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOLS, that great institution that has done so much in the past and is doing so much every minute for working men and women, offers you an easy way to become a trained man—to secure a good position in the trade or profession that best suits your taste and ambition.

The I. C. S. plan enables you to help yourself right where you are without losing an hour of work or a dollar of pay; without changing positions until you are ready to step into the one you desire; without obligating you to pay more than your present salary will afford, no matter how small it is. Thousands of men have secured life-long betterment through this great plan. Every month an average of 300 voluntarily tell us of such advancement. You can do the same as these men have done.

If you really want a good position, a larger salary, and a successful life, find out how you can secure it in the surest and most practical way in the world by marking and mailing this coupon. This puts you under no obligation. It is simply a request for further information. Clip, mark, and mail it NOW.

WHERE WILL YOU GO THIS SUMMER

Enroute to or from the California Expositions, arrange to visit Glacier National Park; very cheap detours from Glacier Park Station from one to three days through this newly revealed wonderland.

Or, visit Yellowstone National Park. If you don't go as far as the Coast, either of these scenic localities would make the finest kind of a summer outing.

There will no doubt be the attractive tours of the East. It would be well to plan a bit early for the summer season of 1915 as to hotel and ranch resort reservations, because of the "See America" movement in place of the European trip.

You can travel in America at the lowest railroad rates and in the most comfortable trains in the world. Ask me for literature descriptive of any tour you have in mind.

Lloyd's Column

What's the Use?

"Just before the war broke out," says Dr. Frank Crane, in the Farm Journal, "the Kaiser issued two commands directing society people how to behave themselves at their own dinner tables. The first was that they should not sit at dinner more than forty-five minutes; the second, that the gentlemen, instead of lingering for a while alone to smoke and tell man stories, should rise when the ladies retire from the board and go. It is getting to be a nice, fine world, thanks to the regulators.

"Chicago has a dance censor, a lady who hangs around whenever a dance is given and sees to it that a visiting card can be inserted between the tangoers. A town in Wisconsin sees Chicago and raises. Anybody caught dancing the tango is jerked up and fined, by heck! Also the dancing school has been closed.

"It is as much as a man's reputation is worth to ride in a crowded street car. Some pure-minded virgin is liable to have him arrested for standing too near, or for not standing near enough. When you hear a woman scream you'd better make off as fast as you can run. The fact that you have been a church member for forty years and are old, bald and reputable can not save you from being arrested as a poison needler. Beat it!

"In Germany the police swooped down upon a postal card the other day. It depicted a woman leaning out of the window with a baby in her arms; she was calling to a man, presumably the father of the child. What's wrong with that? Ha! the Sherlock Holmes Berlin police know. In the picture the woman did not wear a wedding ring!

"You can't kiss a pretty girl, even when she dares you, for fear of microbes. You can't marry her without a certificate from the eugenists. And if you don't marry her she sues you for a breach of promise.

"If you don't make money you are a failure; if you do make money you are worse, for you are taking the shoes and stockings out of the poor man's mouth; if you go to church you are a hypocrite; if you go to the racoon you are a bum.

"Johnny," said his mother, "go out into the yard and see what Willie is doing. And whatever it is tell him to stop it."

"What's the use?" Stationery printed at this office is giving the best satisfaction. Last week we printed 500 statements for a man and by their aid he collected a fortune. Two months ago a man bought of us some note paper and envelopes to use when writing to his sweetheart—and now he is married. Another man forged a name on a check printed at this office—and is in jail. Another stole some of our paper with which to make cigarettes—he is dead. A young lady bought some of our paper to curl her hair on—and now she has a beau. (We only have a little of this left.) By using our statements a person can collect old accounts, tell fortunes, cause rain, change the color of the hair, have teeth extracted without pain, find out the name of your future wife or husband, be successful in business and get elected to office. Give us a call.

Miss Hamlet's Soliloquy on Matrimony

(By Miss Margaret Nibrah, Washington, D. C.)

To wed or not to wed, that is the question.

Whether 'tis better, after all to marry

And be cajoled and bullied by a husband,

Or take up stenography or clerking

And slave, alas! for SOME ONE ELSE'S husband?

To love—to wed—and by a wedding end

The struggles and the thousand petty cares

That "slaves" are heir to—'tis a rare

Devoutly to be wished for! To love

—to wed—

To wed—perchance DIVORCE! Aye,

there's the rub!

For in that dream of bliss that joins

When we have cast aside our little

Must make us wary. There's the

sorry thought

That makes so many spinsters hesitate,

For who would bear the long, eternal

grind,

Th' employer's jokes, the chief

clerk's contumely,

The insolence of office boys, the

Of last week's stogies clinging to the hair,

When she herself might quickly end

it all

BY GETTING MARRIED? Who

would not exchange

A dingy office for a kitchenette—

A keyboard for a cook stove or a cradle—

But that's the dread of something worse to come.

After the honeymoon—that life of

CHANCE

From whose dark bourne so many

have returned

By way of Reno—fills us with dismay.

And makes us rather bear the jobs

we have

Than fly to evils that we know not

of?

Thus cowardice makes spinsters of—

so many!

Killing Prairie Dogs

Is your land infested with prairie dogs? Is your range damaged and your crops endangered with this pest? For thirty-five years I have been killing these pests with a method of my own that does the work quickly and surely. My outfit will operate in western Nebraska during the coming season.

Anyone desiring the prairie dogs on their land killed should communicate with me without delay. My contract price for the work is only thirty-five cents per acre and I charge only for the ground that is infested with the dogs. I will sell the rights for this business for this part of Nebraska to any reliable person or persons.

Call on or write me at the Nebraska Rooming House, in Alliance. If I am not there you can see my representative. Or call at The Herald office and they will locate me for you.
